Once again, our November sale produced record prices with the total going over estimate, 30 lots sold for over $10,000 and one for over $100,000. While prices, on average, were somewhat less than this year's two previous sales, this can be attributed, at least in part, to the makeup of the auction, and not to the market itself.

The demand for collectible decoys remains very strong and early indications are that 2006 will produce yet another record setting year. With a good number of high quality early consignments already in hand, along with the items likely to follow, Guyette & Schmidt, Inc. expects to produce a very strong offering at our annual spring sale at Pheasant Run in St. Charles, Illinois. Our April 2006 auction preview can be viewed at www.guyetteandschmidt.com.
