Guyette and Schmidt, Inc. held their annual summer decoy auction on July 30th and 31st, 2005 with this year's sale held for the first time in Boston's beautiful Seaport Hotel on Boston Harbor. This new venue was chosen for a variety of reasons, the most important of which was to provide a more conducive environment for the swap and sell vendors, a point that became an issue at the previous Cliff House location. The Seaport's function facilities provided a 90 table capacity conveniently located adjacent to the auction location. Additionally, Boston's ease of access, and the Seaport's close proximity to Logan Airport, provided auction attendees with another good reason to make the trip. While there was some concern regarding getting into the city, those who did make the trip commented on the ease with which they were able to get to the hotel. Two major arteries, routes 90, (the Massachusetts Turnpike), running east and west, and route 93 running north and south provide very simple access to the hotel. At $169 per night, the savings over the Cliff House were $100 per night, with no 3 night minimum. Of course, Boston is known for its fantastic restaurants and great shopping, not to mention the historical points of interest.

While the auction attendance was off somewhat, absentee and phone bidding combined with spirited bidding in the hall resulted in the sale being still $750,000 over estimate, with 5 items selling for over $100,000, and 40 for over $10,000.

Next year's summer sale is again slated for the Boston location, and Guyette and Schmidt welcome any suggestions on how to make improvements. Within the next few weeks, we will be brainstorming with some antique and decoy show promoters in an effort to expand the offerings and increase the buying crowd.

This year's fall sale, scheduled for November 9th and 10th, 2005 will be held at the Sailwinds Park in Cambridge, Maryland. This new location is a temporary location due to renovations being made at our regular site at the Talbot County Community Center in Easton. One positive note is that there is unlimited space in the parking lot at Sailwinds for the tailgate event, for which there will be no fee. Guyette and Schmidt has estimated that there will be 27 spaces for vendors inside the hall. All of these spaces have been filled.

Consignments for the fall auction will be accepted until September 20th. Some of the items already consigned for this auction may be viewed on our website at www.guyetteandschmidt.com.
