Guyette & Schmidt, Inc. conducted their annual summer decoy auction on July 29 & 30, 2010. The auction was held at the Sheraton Harborside Hotel in Portsmouth, New Hampshire. The auction grossed $1.25 million with 24 lots selling for over $10,000. As was the case in their April 2010 auction, prices remained steady. Top lot in the sale was a widgeon drake by Joseph Lincoln, which sold for $60,375. A rare redhead hen by Ira Hudson sold over estimate at $58,075. Two early slope breasted decoys by the Mason Decoy Factory sold over estimate, a bluebill and a pintail, both at $16,100. A more detailed auction report is viewable on the Guyette & Schmidt, Inc. website www.guyetteandschmidt.com. The auction was accompanied by a 50 table decoy show with decoy dealers from all over the US.

Frank Schmidt and Gary Guyette assembled over 480 decoys and related items from collections and directly out of houses all over the United States and Canada. Prices for Virginia decoys, Mason Factory decoys, decoratives by the Ward Brothers, and Maine decoys were particularly strong. The sale featured decoys from the collections of Joseph French, William Walper III, E.K. Shaw and Dr. John Levinson.

A significant increase in Internet bidding was noted at this auction. Internet bidders usually bid on less expensive items at Guyette & Schmidt, Inc. auctions but at this one they bid on multi-thousand dollar items as well resulting in over $87,000 in internet sales.

Guyette and Schmidt, Inc.'s next decoy sale will be held on November 10 & 11, at the Talbot County Community Center in Easton, Maryland. To view a preview of decoys that will be sold in this auction go to www.guyetteandschmidt.com. The auction will be held in conjunction with the Easton Waterfowl Festival and have a 75 table decoy show. Another 100 vendors sell decoys in the parking lot. The Consignment deadline for the November decoy auction is September 14th.
