GUYETTE, SCHMIDT & DEETER SUMMER DECOY AUCTION GROSSES OVER $2 MILLION

Portsmouth, New Hampshire - Guyette, Schmidt & Deeter's annual summer decoy auction was held July 17th & 18th at the Sheraton Harborside hotel in Portsmouth, New Hampshire. The sale featured consignments from five early collections as well as unique additions. A decoy dealer buy, sell & swap accompanied the sale. Many of the lots offered in this sale were being sold at auction for the first time or had not been seen since the early decoy auctions dating back to the Richard Bourne sales of the early 1980's, the combination created a great deal of excitement amongst the participants. The sale shattered several key records and grossed well over $2 million, with 95% of the items offered being sold and 43 items selling for over $10,000 each, making it the company's most successful summer sale in over seven years. Many factors point to the sales success mentioned Gary Guyette, "Our guests really enjoy making the July auction part of a summer vacation destination where they can view and hundreds of decoys, visit with friends and meet other collectors. Portsmouth provides a perfect venue for a summer getaway. Not having sales tax is an added bonus." Auction attendees were treated to a complimentary "New England" luncheon both sale days.

Bidding during the two days was strong, caused by a renewed interest from seasoned collectors along with new participants entering the market. Our decoy sales are up more than 20% from last year, which is very exciting. The fastest growing segment of participation at Guyette, Schmidt & Deeter auctions continues to be online bidders, up 20% from the previous year's sale.

Auction highlights include the top item, a full size standing wood duck drake carved by noted Massachusetts carver Elmer Crowell, circa 1915, selling for $115,000, a one of a kind duck call by James Beckhart (Buckspoint, Arkansas) selling for $103,500, a Chauncey Wheeler mallard drake selling for a world record of $63,250, and the only known Elmer Crowell working common snipe decoy selling for $86,250.
