Prices realized for this sale were well over estimate with most all areas realizing prices well beyond our expectations. This is indicative of the increase in the level of interest in decoys and related items as well as the influx of many new and serious buyers into this market. We witnessed a marked increase in both catalog sales and attendance at the sale. With this, one of the best sales in many years, and the promise of an even more powerful sale in April, it is evident that the decoy market is as strong as it has ever been. November 2003 auction highlights are viewable on the Guyette & Schmidt, Inc. website.

The Guyette & Schmidt, Inc. April auction should be one of the most significant decoy sales ever. The sale will feature the collection of John Delph. John's collection includes a magnificent standing Canada goose by Elmer Crowell, as well as some of the best Mason Factory decoys ever auctioned. There are also Nantucket shorebirds, hollow Ontario decoys, exceptional midwestern decoys, and Oscar Peterson carvings. The sale will include two extremely rare turned head "Dust Jacket" plover by Elmer Crowell, one of only two known wood duck drakes by Tom Chambers, and a very good William Bowman dowitcher. The sale will also include the rest of the Bill Staplin collection. We are accepting consignments for this auction until February 29th, or until full. Some of the decoys that will be in this sale are viewable on the Guyette & Schmidt, Inc. website.

Our Summer auction will be at the Cliff House Resort in Ogunquit, Maine on July 29th and 30th. Please note, this is week later than previously planned.

Happy Holidays from the Guyettes & Schmidts
